

1 MR. BROOKS: I don't recall anything concern-
2 ing the words, recorded in the journal of the House
3 finally passing such bill.

4 MR. SCANLAN: I wasn't at the meeting, but I
5 would be against this.

6 MR. BROOKS: I am puzzled by it.

7 MR. MILLER: I don't remember having seen it.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: I take it the Committee goes
9 back to the language of the present Constitution, be
10 recorded in the journal of each House.

11 DR. JENKINS: Mr. Chairman, why is it neces-
12 sary to go into such detail in the Constitution, the 13 proposal in Section 1J to be restudied, each House shall 14 determine its rules of procedure. It seems to me that 15 many of the things here might well be statutory rather
16 than constitutional.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: There is a reason for it in this
18 instance, Dr. Jenkins. You want to comment, Dr. Bard?

19 DR. JENKINS: I pass that on to the Committee.

20 DR. BARD: It is necessary that it give the 21 power to the two Houses concerned.
